LEAVE NO TRACE MASTER EDUCATOR TRAINING IN ALGONQUIN PROVINCIAL PARK

WWW.WNYSCOUTING.ORG/BIRCHBARK

MISSION

To educate scouts on Leave No Trace Center for Outdoor Ethics, using research-based solutions for the protection of the natural world.

APPROACH

Bring together a group of Leave No Trace Master Educator candidates for a multi-day immersion program of training, hands on experiences, interaction and camaraderie with like-minded subject matter experts. Hosted in a backcountry experience, away from the distractions of everyday life, participants will be well fed, well rested and fully grasp the subject matter.

This training event is being hosted by the Greater Niagara Frontier Council, Birchbark Expeditions high adventure program. It is open to all registered scouters (18+) from the Boy Scouts of America and Scouts Canada.

TRAINING PROGRAM DETAILS:

August 10th - August 15th, 2020
in Algonquin Provincial Park, Ontario, Canada

The training program includes a one-year Leave No Trace membership and all instructional material. Includes use of tents, crew camping gear, canoes and safety equipment. Participants are responsible for their own personal camping gear.

Open to adult scouters (18+)

US Citizens will need a valid passport, passport card or enhanced drivers license for entry into Canada

Cost: $290 (US)

1. Education

The Master Educator Course provides participants with an in-depth understanding of minimum impact practices and prepares them to be the best possible teachers of Leave No Trace. Master Course participants go on to educate thousands of people through Awareness Workshops and Trainer Courses.

2. Experience

Experience world-class canoeing in the wilderness of Algonquin Provincial Park. With hundreds of unspoiled lakes and wandering creeks, Algonquin is widely recognized by the canoeing community as the best place in North America to experience backcountry canoe tripping.
